

🌐 Lithuania 📅 October 16-17, 2025

CONFERENCE WEBSITE: <https://icist.ktu.edu>

| About the Conference

The ICIST Conference is hosted by the largest technical university in the Baltic States, Kaunas University of Technology. ICIST 2025 aims to bring together researchers, engineers, developers, and practitioners from academia and industry working in all major and interdisciplinary areas of Information Systems, Business Intelligence, Software Engineering, and Information Technology Applications.

Organized in blended mode. ICIST Proceedings will be published as a volume of Springer-Verlag CCIS.

► The main aim of this event is to enable the best Lithuanian information technology (IT) researchers and practitioners to meet with their colleagues from abroad, share their latest research findings and introduce them to the international scientific community.

We look forward to welcoming you and your colleagues at ICIST 2025.
