| About the Conference

30th International Conference „Information Society and University Studies“ IVUS2025 is the continuation of the annual conference series organized in succession by three universities: Vilnius University Kaunas Faculty, Vytautas Magnus University and Kaunas University of Technology. The event was started in 1995. In 2017 conference became an international event. For the reason of a long history of this conference, we left conference acronym according to it's Lithuanian title "Informacinė visuomenė ir universitetinės studijos" - IVUS. And since 2017 it is a joint event that brings together our colleagues and organising partners Silesian University of Technology, Gliwice, Poland.

These conferences are aimed at Master & PhD students together with their supervisors as well as at young scientists, researchers, practitioners of the field to share ideas, present research results and provide new scientific opportunities.
